Profile

Sean is a business and securities lawyer with experience and abilities in relation to advising both public and private companies as well as real estate investment projects. Sean has particular interest and abilities in being involved with entrepreneurial and start-up ventures and working with such clients to assist with their progress and development.

Sean has acted for owner-operated businesses, Canadian public companies and foreign entities that conduct business in Canada. Mr. Zaboroski has assisted with the listing (IPO, RTO, etc.) and the maintenance of publicly-traded companies, asset and share acquisitions (both cross-border and domestic), equity and debt financings, limited partnerships and corporate restructurings, as well as general corporate governance-related matters.

Most recently Sean was involved in the founding, development and eventual listing on the Canadian Securities Exchange of a major Canadian company that operates in the medical marijuana space in the United States. Sean has also recently been involved with the founding of an investment trust focussed on real estate in the southern Ontario area.

In addition to business law, Sean practice also focuses on fertility law including negotiating and drafting agreements related to surrogacy, egg, sperm and embryo donations, preparation of court declarations of parentage and providing legal advice in relation to surrogacy laws and third party reproduction laws. These services are provided with respect and compassion for clients from across Canada and around the world. More information on this practice can be found at www.canadianfertilitylawyers.com.

Sean also has extensive experience creating and acting for not-for-profit and charitable organizations and is providing his legal services to both the Pink Pearl Foundation and Foundations For Education – Canada on a pro bono basis.

Mr. Zaboroski received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Manitoba (1988). Upon graduation, he started and, for several years, successfully ran entrepreneurial ventures in Winnipeg and Calgary. Upon returning to university, Sean obtained a Masters of Business Administration degree (1998) and a Bachelor of Laws degree (2001), both from the University of Manitoba. Mr. Zaboroski is in the final stages of completing a Master's Degree (LLM) in securities law from York University (Toronto, Canada) that he has been pursuing on a part-time basis. Sean has also successfully completed several courses of the Canadian Securities Institute.
